NOTE 1 : Sec IV and SEC V

Secondaire 4	Secondaire 5
24 credits of Sec IV and V Note: General school units for youth or the adult sector only. Vocationnal studies units are not accepted in the calculation.	High School diploma or Secondary School Equivalency Certificate (SSEC) Note : General Educational Development (GED) certificates are not accepted
Completed Diploma of vocational studies (DVS)	DVS and granted units of the following Sec V : 1. Language of instruction 2. Second language 3. Mathematics Note: In accordance with the prerequisites required by the MEQ to access a Diploma of College Studies (DEC). In the case where the DVS is directly related to the targeted MOS ID and the applicant does not have a high school diploma (HSD), a request for exemption can be submitted if the HSD is included in the entry standard.

Note: Any higher diploma is considered an asset.

NOTE 2 : Attestation from the Canadian Society for Medical Laboratory Science (CSMLS): The CSMLS certification is accepted all across Canada. In fact, it is an entry-level requirement for medical laboratory technologists in all regulated provinces (AB, SK, NL, MB, ON, NB, NS and PE) except Quebec.

NOTE 3 : A Grade 12 Biology course or ST III or ST IV in Quebec: Some trades, such as MED TECH (00334) require a Grade 12 Biology course. In Quebec, since Grade 12 Biology does not exist in the regular program, it has been agreed that Science and Technology III (Secondary III) is prioritized to replace the Grade 12 Biology course (the Biology concepts are very similar in both courses). However, since the Ministère de l'Éducation's transcript does not include Secondary III courses and Science and Technology III (Secondary III) is not a compulsory course for the secondary school diploma, it is imperative that we request the Secondary III transcript in order to determine whether or not the candidate has successfully completed the Science and Technology III course. But if the candidate is unable to provide us with proof of successful completion, ST IV is acceptable.
